(MAY16)Q14A. The Prime Minister, David Cameron, recently gave a speech saying that a vote to leave the European Union might put at risk the peace and stability of Europe. However, Boris Johnson, the former Mayor of London, has said this is not a powerful argument, and that peace in Europe is down to NATO. If Britain leaves the EU, do you think it would be better or worse for peace and stability in Europe, or would it make no difference?
